Community Advent and Carols Celebration

The Lower School Teachers invite the community to attend a renewed celebration of Advent.

In the past students performed in an Advent Play during the school day and then the community were invited to join us in singing Christmas carols in the evening.

This year, the Lower School teachers would like to gift the students, and the entire community, with their presentation of an adapted version of "The Shepherds' Play". In this adapted performance the whole community will play a part by joining in and singing some well-known Christmas carols.

If you haven't begun singing or humming along to these Christmas tunes, perhaps you'd like to start on these:

Oh Little Town of Bethlehem; Away in a Manger; The First Noël; Little Drummer Boy; Silent Night; Joy to the World and Ding Dong Merrily on High.

We would love for you to join us on Friday, 9 December at 6:00pm for a prompt 6:30 start.

More details will follow in the coming weeks.

Blessings to one and all

Arlene

SUMMER FAIR

1 MORE SLEEP!

Just one more sleep until our fabulous Fair! The school is humming with excitement, but we also recognise that people have been working very, VERY hard to complete their fair day preparations.

We appreciate every single one of you who has been baking, sewing, painting, building, collecting, sorting, typing, telephoning, trawling the streets, working at the crack of dawn, late into the night and generally pulling out all the stops to make this year's Fair incredible. You are all wonderful!

If you haven't already, please SHARE the Facebook page with your networks so that as many people as possible know about our amazing Fair.

LIBRARY NEWS

It's been a busy few months of transition in the library. A huge thank you to Louise for the invaluable support during the changeover, to our library assistant Rebecca for helping such a lot in the adjustment phase, and also to the school and community for the warm welcome.

Books due back soon:

All books are due back on 7th December so we can undertake our annual stocktake, so please remind your tamariki to get these back.

Class 11 and 12 students – all class readers and textbooks also need to be returned by 7th December. These can be dropped to the library directly, but there will also be a box in the office to collect your textbook returns on prizegiving and graduation day.

PLAY JOURNAL, DAY 4

Week one of immersion has kicked off, and already the auditorium is feeling like pandemonium. Well, when I say 'is feeling like', I mean 'is actually'.

This year it's our last class play and the last time most of us will experience drama in this theatre. Already I can see the class unite and put all their energy into this play, to make the most of this opportunity.

It's amazing watching my classmates step up into roles of leadership. I've seen the confidence in their creativity flourish as they busily work on putting the set together and create the costumes for the cast to wear.

Personally this week has been quite intense, it pushed me far outside my comfort zone and made me face my struggles with self confidence. But I know that the auditorium is a safe place, that my class is there to support each other and that Ms Wilson is cheering for us and wants us to shine.

If you love to laugh, then Pandemonium is the show for you. It has the spirit of a Christmas pantomime; It's fast paced, it's comic, it's musical, and bursting with amusement. The costumes are fun and colourful, and the set is really cool and quite different.

You can buy your tickets now on iTICKET for the 28th or 29th November (only 17 days away!), but until then you can witness a taste of PANDEMONIUM at the MPS fair where we see the band take to the stage at 1pm.

See you then!
